NATIONAL ASSEMBLY OF BHUTAN

7th November 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Gyalsung Bill of the Kingdom of Bhutan 2022

In an unprecedented and historic occasion, the Gyalsung Bill of the Kingdom of Bhutan 2022 was introduced to the National Assembly today. His Majesty the King commanded the drafting of the Bill to the National Service Core Working Group led by Dasho Sonam Kinga (Ph.D.) former Member of Parliament. Preceding the introduction of the Bill to the National Assembly by Dasho Sonam Kinga, the Hon'ble Speaker read out the Royal Kasho on the Gyalsung Bill.

The Gyalsung Bill of the Kingdom of Bhutan is His Majesty's vision to institutionalize the Gyalsung to empower all Bhutanese youth to participate in the process of nation-building to further enhance the security, peace, unity, harmony, and sovereignty of our nation. The Gyalsung program aims to realize the above vision by enabling each and every Bhutanese youth to actualize their innate potential and become productive and worthy citizens in the service of the Tsawa-Sum. The National Service is also a Fundamental Duty required of all Bhutanese citizens as enshrined in Article 8.1 of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Bhutan.

Introducing the Bill to the House, Dasho Sonam Kinga (Ph.D.), submitted that the main objectives of the National Service Program (Gyalsung) are to:

- a. Endow the youth of Bhutan with the knowledge, skills, and values to actualize their potential in this rapidly changing world and contribute to realizing the national goals and aspirations;
- b. Empower the youth with the capabilities and attributes needed to succeed academically and professionally;
- c. Enhance the awareness of the youth about the challenges that our country faces and meaningfully engage them in finding and implementing collective solutions;
- d. Encourage volunteerism among our citizens to foster the spirit of selfless service in enhancing the well-being of our people;
- e. Ensure that we prepare the future generations to fully shoulder their sacred responsibilities of upholding and promoting the unity, peace, security, and sovereignty of our nation for all times to come.
